

INSPECTION POLICY

SgurrEnergy Private Limited (SgurrEnergy) is dedicated to support the development of renewable energy worldwide by providing technical expertise and inspection services in renewable energy industry by utilizing the domain knowledge and the vast experience in the field.

The organization aims at achieving its goals based on the principles of impartiality, confidentiality and reliability in accordance with international standards and defined inspection methods.

It is our policy to deliver our services with a commitment towards quality. We intend to serve in a manner that benefits the customers such that the offered services will improve the quality of the system that is to be owned by the client or the end user. The objectives for the same being that:

- Developing, maintaining and meeting the requirements of ISO/IEC17020:2012. Being committed to understanding and responding to our clients' needs and expectations. Understanding and ensuring compliance with best practice industry standards and other requirements that are applicable to our inspection activities and services.
- To provide quality inspection services to our clients in timely and effective manner related to inspection at vendor premises and construction inspection.
- To provide unbiased inspection service by embodying Impartiality, Independence, Confidentiality, to improve the overall product and construction quality.
- To ensure consistency in the Inspection, dispatch clearance process and the Inspection reports.
- Continual improvement in the inspection services by providing regular training to staffs.

Personnel are empowered and encouraged, through their actions, to ensure that SgurrEnergy Private Limited (SgurrEnergy) consistently meets high standards in quality of inspection services and achieve customer satisfaction.

Date of Issue:

16.01.2023

Approved by:

Arif Aga, Director